OPEN EVENINGS.

$15 and $13.50 Garments for . .

This is a sale that ought to happen in January instead of December, but we've broken away from old traditions, and give you the benefit of the saving right in the heart of the season instead of waiting till it's half over.

We've placed all the broken lots of Suits and Overcoats that sold up to $15 on separate tables--and you may take your choice for $10.

That you readily paid us full price for them up to yesterday proves what big bargains they are.

And if you're thinking of making someone a present of a Suit or Overcoat, this sale is doubly interesting.

The Overcoats are Kerseys, Coverts, Meltons, Friezes and Oxford Mixtures. The Suits are Single-Breasted Sacks, Double-Breasted Sacks, and Cutaways--both plain and fancy.

Choose for $10--- and it's one of the best offers we've ever made.

The second day's session of the American Humana Association opened this morning promptly at 19:30."

The delegates were called to order by President Shortall, who announced that Mrs. C. E. White had a paper to read on the subject of animal transportation. Some little discussion was caused by the efforts of one of the delegates to extend the morning session until 2 o'clock. Delegate Jenkins suggested that the roposed extension of the session would be too long and suggested an adjournment at 12:30; half an hour longer than the program scheduled. The suggestion of Mr. Jenkins was adopted and Mrs. White was allowed to proceed.

Mrs. Barbour said this could be done equally as well by a committee of wom-
